

5th annual science symposium
thurs. april, 13th

sullivan county community college

SEMINARS - 10:00 AM

of small greenhouse operation will be considered. Participants may raise questions and offer advice. The S.C.C.C. greenhouse is at the southwest corner of the campus (behind the science building).

B-105 SCIENCE FROM YOUR AIRPLANE WINDOW

Dr. Elizabeth Wood, B.A., Barnard, Geology M.A., Ph.D., Bryn Mawr, Geology - D.Sc. (hon) Wheaton College, Norton, Mass.; Western College, Oxford, Ohio; Worcester Polytechnic Institute - Member of Research Dept., Bell Telephone Labs (retired)

A plane trip is an opportunity to see and experience things that are impossible for the grounded person to observe. Observations in the fields of physics, geology, botany, ecology, sociology will be illustrated.

C-111 MICRO COMPUTERS - David Wahlstrom, Chairman, Civil Technology, S.C.C.C.

A discussion and demonstration of a typical home computer system. The demonstration will illustrate how a home computer may be used to 1) entertain the children. 2) balance the checkbook. 3) Answer the phone. 4) close the garage door.

D-106 EXPERIMENTAL TELEVISION - Discussion and Demonstration - Steina Vasulka, artist-in-residence at the National Center for Experiments in TV at KQED, San Francisco; also The Television Laboratory at WNET, NYC; be seen and WNED-Channel 17, Buffalo. She has at received grants from the National Endowment for the Arts, the NYS Council on the Arts, and is a Guggenheim Fellow.